meles points each.

The pork must be packed from corn-fed, well-fattened hogs, slaughered between the first day of November, 1857, and the first day of anuary, 1858, and weighing not less than two hundred pounds each, scalading the heads, joics, necks, shoulders, hans, legs, feet, butts, umps, lard, and all refuse pieces; and must be cut with a sase and outfe, in pieces weighing not less than six pounds, nor more than welve pounds, each.

Both the beef and pork must be salted with at least one statute bushel of Turk's Island, lide of May, Key West solar, Onendaga solar, est. Ube's sait: and the beef must have five ources of fine pulver-fresh water as strong as salt will make it, and must be percevy bright and clear.

Each barrel must contain full 200 pounds net weight of beef or pork, and no excess of weight in either article will be paid for.

The barrels must be entirely new, and be made of the best seasoned heart of white oaks staves and headings; the staves to be not less than tive eighths of an inch thick, and the headings not less than three-fourths of an inch thick; they must be three-fourths hooped over, including the iron hoops, with the best white oak or hickory hoops, and each barrel must have on it four iron hoops, viz: one of one and a half inch in witht ou each bling, and one of one and an eighth inch in witht on each chime, and each to be of one sixteenth of an inch thick, Each barrel must be of the internal capacity of thirty-two gallons, and the ron hoops must be well painted with red lead.

Each barrel must be branded by burning on its head "Navy Beef," or "Navy Pork," as the case may be, with the contractor's name and the year when packed, and weight; and shall also be branded on the bung stave with the letter B. or P., as the case may be.

The beef and pork will, unless otherwise directed by the chief of this bureau, be inspected by the inspecting officers; that their charges for such inspections must be paid by the respective contractors, who must likewise lave the barrels put in good shipping order, to the satisfaction of the commandants of the respective navy-yards aforesaid, after inspection, and at their own expense.

Two or more approved surcties in a sum equal to one half the estimated amount of the contract will be required, and twenty per centum in addition will be withheld from the amount of each payment to be made, as collateral security for the due and faithful performance of the respective contracts, which will on no account be paid until the contracts are complied with in all respects; and is to be forfeited to the United States in the event of failure to complet the deliveries within the prescribed period. I made by the United States at the persons the twenty per centum to be withheld until the completion of the contract, as before stated,) after the said beef and pork shall have been inspected and received, and bills for the same shall have been presented to the navy agents, respectively, duly approved by the commandants of the respective navy-yards, according to the terms of the mandants or the respective havy-yards, according to the terms of the construct.

The parts of boff to be excluded will be particularly designated in the engraving to be attached to the contruct. Persons interested can obtain them on application at this afface.

Bidders whose proposals are accepted (and none others) will be forthwith nothled, and as early as practicable a contract will be transmitted to them for execution, which contract must be returned to the bureau within ten days, exclusive of the time required for the regular transmission of the mail.

A record or duplicate of the letter informing a bidder of the acceptance of his proposal, will be deemed a notification thereof, within the meaning of the act of 1846, and his bid will be made and accepted in conformity with this understanding.

Every offer made must be accompanied (as directed in the 6th section of the act of Congress making appropriations for the naval ser-the firm, where a company offers, with the Christian names written in fall, must be distinctly stated.

Under the joint resolution of Congress, approved 27th March, 1854, "all bids for supplies of provisions, ciothing, and small stores for the use of the navy, may be rejected at the option of the department, if made by one not known as a manufacturer of, or regular dealer in, the article proposed to be furnished, which fact, or the reverse, must be distinctly stated in the bids offered."

An agent of the department will furnish the address for each parcel, which is to be pasted on the box by the manufacturer without charge. The dies for embossing the postage stamps on the envelopes are to be executed in the best style, and they are to be provided, renewed, and kept in order at the expense of the contracturer without properties. Bidders are requested to furnish samples of paper, with their bids, of the quality they intend to use in the manufacture of the envelopes they propose to furnish.

Bond and security will be required for the faithful performance of the contract, and payments under it will be made quarterly. Price, quality of samples, and the sufficiency of the bidder will be considered together in awarding the contract; and the Postmaster General reserves to himself the right to annul it whenever he shall discover that the same, or any part of it, is offered for sale in the market for the purpose of speculation; and he will in no case sanction a transfer of the contract to any party who shall be, in his opinion, less able and qualified than the original bidder or contractor. The right is also reserved to annul the contract for a failure to perform faithfully any of its stipulations.
